

Expanding Sentences

(Example here)

This sentence has been parsed. That means that the different word groups have been identified with different colours.

Red = noun groups

Green = verb groups

Blue = circumstances - you can have a noun group in a circumstance but it will be blue if you are identifying the circumstance

Yellow = conjunctions

1. Parse the following sentences:
(examples here)

2. Write four simple sentences of your own and parse them (colour the word groups).

3. Join your simple sentences together using a linking conjunction – it doesn't matter if the sentences are silly!

Linking Conjunctions
for	and	nor	but	or	yet	so

4. Now write two compound sentences of your own. They must be compound, not complex.